

Discharge Instructions for Maria Gomez, MRN 003-77211, born 1962-02-22:

Maria Gomez was discharged on 2026-02-12, after being admitted on 2026-02-10.

Diagnoses:

Maria Gomez was diagnosed with type 2 diabetes mellitus, hypertension, and a diabetic foot ulcer on her left foot.

Hospital Course:

Maria Gomez received treatment for her infected diabetic foot ulcer with intravenous antibiotics, resulting in improvement.

Medications:

Maria Gomez was prescribed metformin 1000 mg orally twice daily with meals, lisinopril 10 mg orally daily, and amoxicillin-clavulanate 875/125 mg orally twice daily for 7 days.

Observations:

Maria Gomez's A1c level was 8.7%, and her blood pressure was 152/92 mmHg.

Procedures:

Wound debridement of Maria Gomez's left foot was performed on 2026-02-11.

Plan:

Maria Gomez is scheduled for follow-up appointments, including wound care and glucose monitoring, as well as a visit with her primary care physician in one week.

Discharge Summary for Maria Gomez, MRN 003-77211

Patient Discharge Details:

Maria Gomez was discharged on February 12, 2026, after being admitted on February 10, 2026.

Diagnoses:

Maria Gomez was diagnosed with type 2 diabetes mellitus, hypertension, and a diabetic foot ulcer on her left foot.

Hospital Course:

During her hospital stay, Maria received treatment for her infected diabetic foot ulcer with intravenous antibiotics, which resulted in improvement.

Medications:

At discharge, Maria was prescribed the following medications:

- Metformin 1000 mg orally twice daily with meals
- Lisinopril 10 mg orally once daily
- Amoxicillin-clavulanate 875/125 mg orally twice daily for 7 days

Vital Signs and Laboratory Results:

Maria's A1c level was 8.7% and her blood pressure was 152/92 mmHg.

Procedures:

On February 11, 2026, Maria underwent wound debridement on her left foot.

Follow-up Instructions:

Maria is scheduled for follow-up appointments, including wound care and glucose monitoring, and a visit with her primary care physician in one week.

Discharge Instructions for Maria Gomez, MRN 003-77211, born 1962-02-22:

Maria Gomez was discharged on 2026-02-12, following an admission on 2026-02-10.

Maria Gomez has been diagnosed with the following conditions:

Type 2 diabetes mellitus
Hypertension
Diabetic foot ulcer on the left foot

During her hospital stay, Maria Gomez received treatment for an infected diabetic foot ulcer with intravenous antibiotics, resulting in improvement.

Maria Gomez is currently taking the following medications:

Metformin 1000 mg orally twice a day with meals
Lisinopril 10 mg orally once a day
Amoxicillin-clavulanate 875/125 mg orally twice a day for 7 days

Observations made during Maria Gomez's hospital stay include:

A hemoglobin A1c level of 8.7%
A blood pressure reading of 152/92 mmHg

Procedures performed on Maria Gomez during her hospital stay include:

Wound debridement of the left foot on 2026-02-11

Maria Gomez is scheduled for the following follow-up appointments:

Wound care follow-up
Glucose monitoring
Primary care physician follow-up in one week.

Discharge Instructions for Maria Gomez (MRN: 003-77211, DOB: 1962-02-22)

Maria Gomez was discharged on February 12, 2026, after being admitted on February 10, 2026.

Maria Gomez was diagnosed with the following conditions:

* Type 2 diabetes mellitus
* Hypertension
* Diabetic foot ulcer on the left foot

During her hospital stay, Maria Gomez received treatment for her infected diabetic foot ulcer with intravenous antibiotics, which resulted in improvement.

Maria Gomez is currently taking the following medications:

* Metformin 1000 mg orally twice a day with meals
* Lisinopril 10 mg orally once a day
* Amoxicillin-clavulanate 875/125 mg orally twice a day for 7 days

Maria Gomez's laboratory results and vital signs are as follows:

* A1c level: 8.7%
* Blood pressure: 152/92 mmHg

Maria Gomez underwent the following procedure:

* Wound debridement of the left foot on February 11, 2026

Maria Gomez's plan for follow-up care includes:

- * Wound care follow-up
- * Glucose monitoring
- * A visit with her primary care physician (PCP) in one week.

Discharge Instructions for Maria Gomez, MRN 003-77211, born 1962-02-22:

Maria Gomez was discharged on 2026-02-12, after being admitted on 2026-02-10.

Diagnoses:

Maria Gomez was diagnosed with type 2 diabetes mellitus, hypertension, and a diabetic foot ulcer on her left foot.

Hospital Course:

Maria Gomez received treatment for her infected diabetic foot ulcer with intravenous antibiotics, resulting in improvement.

Medications:

Maria Gomez was prescribed metformin 1000 mg orally twice daily with meals, lisinopril 10 mg orally daily, and amoxicillin-clavulanate 875/125 mg orally twice daily for 7 days.

Observations:

Maria Gomez's A1c level was 8.7%, and her blood pressure was 152/92 mmHg.

Procedures:

Wound debridement of Maria Gomez's left foot was performed on 2026-02-11.

Plan:

Maria Gomez is scheduled for follow-up appointments, including wound care and glucose monitoring, as well as a visit with her primary care physician in one week.

Discharge Summary for Maria Gomez, MRN 003-77211

Patient Discharge Details:

Maria Gomez was discharged on February 12, 2026, after being admitted on February 10, 2026.

Diagnoses:

Maria Gomez was diagnosed with type 2 diabetes mellitus, hypertension, and a diabetic foot ulcer on her left foot.

Hospital Course:

During her hospital stay, Maria received treatment for her infected diabetic foot ulcer with intravenous antibiotics, which resulted in improvement.

Medications:

At discharge, Maria was prescribed the following medications:

- Metformin 1000 mg orally twice daily with meals
- Lisinopril 10 mg orally once daily
- Amoxicillin-clavulanate 875/125 mg orally twice daily for 7 days

Vital Signs and Laboratory Results:

Maria's A1c level was 8.7% and her blood pressure was 152/92 mmHg.

Procedures:

On February 11, 2026, Maria underwent wound debridement on her left foot.

Follow-up Instructions:

Maria is scheduled for follow-up appointments, including wound care and glucose monitoring, and a visit with her primary care physician in one week.

Discharge Instructions for Maria Gomez, MRN 003-77211, born 1962-02-22:

Maria Gomez was discharged on 2026-02-12, following an admission on 2026-02-10.

Maria Gomez has been diagnosed with the following conditions:

Type 2 diabetes mellitus

Hypertension

Diabetic foot ulcer on the left foot

During her hospital stay, Maria Gomez received treatment for an infected diabetic foot ulcer with intravenous antibiotics, resulting in improvement.

Maria Gomez is currently taking the following medications:

Metformin 1000 mg orally twice a day with meals

Lisinopril 10 mg orally once a day

Amoxicillin-clavulanate 875/125 mg orally twice a day for 7 days

Observations made during Maria Gomez's hospital stay include:

A hemoglobin A1c level of 8.7%

A blood pressure reading of 152/92 mmHg

Procedures performed on Maria Gomez during her hospital stay include:

Wound debridement of the left foot on 2026-02-11

Maria Gomez is scheduled for the following follow-up appointments:

Wound care follow-up

Glucose monitoring

Primary care physician follow-up in one week.

Discharge Instructions for Maria Gomez (MRN: 003-77211, DOB: 1962-02-22)

Maria Gomez was discharged on February 12, 2026, after being admitted on February 10, 2026.

Maria Gomez was diagnosed with the following conditions:

* Type 2 diabetes mellitus

* Hypertension

* Diabetic foot ulcer on the left foot

During her hospital stay, Maria Gomez received treatment for her infected diabetic foot ulcer with intravenous antibiotics, which resulted in improvement.

Maria Gomez is currently taking the following medications:

* Metformin 1000 mg orally twice a day with meals

- * Lisinopril 10 mg orally once a day
- * Amoxicillin-clavulanate 875/125 mg orally twice a day for 7 days

Maria Gomez's laboratory results and vital signs are as follows:

- * A1c level: 8.7%
- * Blood pressure: 152/92 mmHg

Maria Gomez underwent the following procedure:

- * Wound debridement of the left foot on February 11, 2026

Maria Gomez's plan for follow-up care includes:

- * Wound care follow-up
- * Glucose monitoring
- * A visit with her primary care physician (PCP) in one week.

Discharge Instructions for Maria Gomez, MRN 003-77211, born 1962-02-22:

Maria Gomez was discharged on 2026-02-12, after being admitted on 2026-02-10.

Diagnoses:

Maria Gomez was diagnosed with type 2 diabetes mellitus, hypertension, and a diabetic foot ulcer on her left foot.

Hospital Course:

Maria Gomez received treatment for her infected diabetic foot ulcer with intravenous antibiotics, resulting in improvement.

Medications:

Maria Gomez was prescribed metformin 1000 mg orally twice daily with meals, lisinopril 10 mg orally daily, and amoxicillin-clavulanate 875/125 mg orally twice daily for 7 days.

Observations:

Maria Gomez's A1c level was 8.7%, and her blood pressure was 152/92 mmHg.

Procedures:

Wound debridement of Maria Gomez's left foot was performed on 2026-02-11.

Plan:

Maria Gomez is scheduled for follow-up appointments, including wound care and glucose monitoring, as well as a visit with her primary care physician in one week.

Discharge Summary for Maria Gomez, MRN 003-77211

Patient Discharge Details:

Maria Gomez was discharged on February 12, 2026, after being admitted on February 10, 2026.

Diagnoses:

Maria Gomez was diagnosed with type 2 diabetes mellitus, hypertension, and a diabetic foot ulcer on her left foot.

Hospital Course:

During her hospital stay, Maria received treatment for her infected diabetic foot ulcer with intravenous antibiotics, which resulted in improvement.

Medications:

At discharge, Maria was prescribed the following medications:

- Metformin 1000 mg orally twice daily with meals
- Lisinopril 10 mg orally once daily
- Amoxicillin-clavulanate 875/125 mg orally twice daily for 7 days

Vital Signs and Laboratory Results:

Maria's A1c level was 8.7% and her blood pressure was 152/92 mmHg.

Procedures:

On February 11, 2026, Maria underwent wound debridement on her left foot.

Follow-up Instructions:

Maria is scheduled for follow-up appointments, including wound care and glucose monitoring, and a visit with her primary care physician in one week.